FAREWELL

When you read this I will have left Kluwer Law International. I have retired and will pursue a new life by setting up my own international publishing consultancy business.

It was a pleasure knowing you all, and to have done business with you. And a number of friendships were born from these business relationships. Kluwer Law International is an international company, and that enabled me to sell our publications all over the world. You enriched my life since I have been in many countries and was able to absorb many different cultures. I learned a lot, and I thank you for making my career such an interesting and memorable one.

Who knows, we may even meet again someday. If you wish to stay connected, please look me up on LinkedIn so we can stay friends.

Best wishes, Marcel
